CHARTIFACTS!

End Of Year Chart 2005 ~ Issue #826

SINGLES. Well what a year! This is the third year in a row that an Aussie title has come in as the top single of the year and as in the previous two it is again an Australian Idol contestant. Congratulations to Anthony Callea who follows in the footsteps of Guy Sebastian in 2003 and Shannon Noll last year. Through 2005 we have seen 22 singles get to the #1 position, six of which were by Aussie acts. 552 singles made it into the top 100, of which 343 reached the top 50 and 92 appeared in the top 10. Green Day, Gwen Stefani and Nelly all had three singles each peak in the top 100 during 2005, while Eminem and Britney appear in the end of year top 100 for their sixth year running. The single that spent the most weeks in the top 100 this year was Wolfmother EP, racking up a huge 35 weeks in the chart. However it spent most of its stay in the bottom 50 of the chart and unfortunately did not reach the year-end top 100 list. The comeback of the year would have to go to the Backstreet Boys whose single Incomplete came in at #25 in the end of year chart. It is their first single since 2000 to make the list.

No.1 THE PRAYER – Anthony Callea. Anthony Callea was the runner-up in the second series of Australian Idol but this quadruple platinum single has seen him emerge as the show's big winner of 2005. His first hit, The Prayer is a remake of the Andre Bocelli track which was first recorded as a duet with Celine Dion. Anthony's version debuted at #1 in the last week of eligibility for last year's recap which saw it land at #82 in the 2004 list. It then spent the first four weeks of 2005 at #1 which has resulted in the single sailing into the top spot for this year.

No.2 DON'T CHA – The Pussycat Dolls. In holding the #1 position for seven weeks between August and October, the debut single for The Pussycat Dolls earned the distinction as having the longest stay at #1 since Eminem's marathon 12 week ride with Lose Yourself over New Year 2002/2003. Still in the top 40 as 2005 ends, the single was one of only three to spend as many as 14 weeks in the top 10 during the year.

No.3 LONELY – Akon. This was the second and biggest of three top 40 hits during the year for Akon. Originally from Senegal, the R & B star has received much acclaim in the United States. Spending three weeks at #1 in July and August, the track features a sampled version of Bobby Vinton's 1964 US #1 and Aussie top 5 hit Mr. Lonely.

No.4 AXEL F. – Crazy Frog. Another remake. This time it is of Harold Faltermeyer's 1985 instrumental hit from the Beverly Hills Cop Soundtrack. This version started its "life" as a simple recording of a young man mimicking his mo-ped, which then morphed into a ringtone, before the cheeky little nude amphibian crossed over into the music charts, where he spent three weeks at #1 in July and August.

No.5 OVER AND OVER – Nelly feat. Tim McGraw. While country singer Tim McGraw is a newcomer to the upper regions of the Australian singles charts, Nelly has been a consistent performer throughout this decade and has placed singles in the year end top 100s of each of the last 5 years! Of his six platinum singles to date, this is his second to reach multi-platinum status and falls just one position short of the #4 rank of his biggest hit Dilemma in the 2002 year end list.

No.6 SWITCH – Will Smith. Hitting #1 for one week in May, this is the single that spent more weeks in the national top 50 during 2005 than any other – a massive 29 weeks. This year end position matches the #6 achieved in the 1997 list by Will's only other solo #1 single, Men In Black. It is now more than a decade since his first appearance at #1 as the Fresh Prince with his mate DJ Jazzy Jeff on the January 1994 thumper Boomb! Shake The Room.

No.7 LET ME LOVE YOU – Mario. Here the highest selling single of 2005 that did not reach #1. Starting out as a youngster singing on his mother's karaoke machine, Mario trained his voice and has become the R & B superstar he is today. At its peak Let Me Love You spent a week at #3 in March behind the debuting Delta Goodrem and Brian McFadden duet Almost Here and Nelly's ditty Over And Over.

No.8 NASTY GIRL – Nitty. A relative newcomer to the Australian charts, Nitty (born Frank Ross) had his debut hit with Nasty Girl. The single spent two weeks at #1 back in January and reached platinum status. A self-confessed Mummy's boy, his second popular single Hey Bitty peaked at #11 during the year and landed at #86 in the end of year chart.

No.9 FEEL GOOD INC. – Gorillaz. This is the first Australian top 10 single for this "pseudo band", with them being one of two non-human acts in the year end top 10 along with Crazy Frog. The cartoon pop-rockers had the equal longest run in the top 10 during 2005 with The Pussycat Dolls' Don't Cha (see #2 above) and James Blunt's You're Beautiful (which sits at #11 for the year). Gorillaz' second single to appear in the end of year list was Dare which came in at #64.

No.10 DON'T PHUNK WITH MY HEART – Black Eyed Peas. The Black Eyed Peas have had an impressive year, with three hits making the end of year top 50. Don't Phunk With My Heart peaked at #1 and held the position for three weeks in May and June. Along with Anthony Callea, BEP were one of only two artists to have two #1 singles during 2005 (My Humps was their other). The funksters have now had four #1 singles since 2003 and their last seven singles have all reached the top 10.

ALBUMS. Like the singles chart, this is the third year in a row that the #1 album of the year has been held by an Aussie act. However in contrast to the singles, none have been by Idols – Delta Goodrem in 2004 and Jet last year. This year saw 24 albums claim the title of #1 album, eight of which were Aussie artists. 513 albums hit the top 100 during the past year, with 211 of these peaking in the top 50 and 90 in the top 10. Robbie Williams and Il Divo were the only two acts to have multiple #1 albums throughout 2005. Both racked up two #1 albums apiece. A pretty impressive and noteworthy achievement is the fact that 19 positions in the end of year top 50 are held by Aussie acts. This is the most we have had since 1988. Showing no signs of slowing down, Rod Stewart had a total of six top 100 charting albums during 2005 – two more than his nearest rivals Elvis Presley and Michael Buble. Unfortunately for Rod, none of them made the end of year list. Speaking of Michael Buble though, his four chart albums spent the most combined total of weeks in the top 100 this year – 99 weeks. Only two soundtracks made the year end list, which is the smallest number in more than a decade. Three albums have appeared in the past three end of year charts – Fleetwood Mac's Very Best Of Fleetwood Mac (#60 in 2003, #96 in 2004, #77 this year), Pete Murray's Feeler (#78 in 2003, #3 in 2004 and #74 this year) and Jet's Get Born (#48 in 2003, #1 in 2004 and #35 this year). Powderfinger have had the longest unbroken string of appearances in the year end top 100s – they have had at least one album in the top 100 every year since 1996! Wow.

No.1 THE SOUND OF WHITE – Missy Higgins. What a year for Missy Higgins! The Sound Of White spent five weeks at #1 this year on top of the two weeks held at #1 in last year. It spent a massive 34 weeks in the top 10 this year which is more than any other album this year, and spent 13 weeks in the top 10 in 2004. The album has gone gang-busters, gaining a huge 8x platinum sales status and never dropping below #21 on the albums chart all year. Missy won a swag of gongs at the ARIA Awards for the album at this year's ceremony. Last year The Sound Of White came in at #15 in the end of year chart.

No.2 BREAKAWAY – Kelly Clarkson. The first American Idol, Kelly Clarkson, had a breakthrough in Australia with this album. Breakaway hit #10 in October last year before dropping out of the top 50 at the end of the year. At the start of 2005, it re-entered the top 50 and by mid winter had climbed back into the top 10. Getting comfortable, the album spent the entire latter half of 2005 in the top 10. Between July and November, Kelly's album spent five scattered weeks at #2. The album has produced four top 10 singles, three of which have been this year.

No.3 IT'S TIME – Michael Buble. As mentioned above, irresistible crooner Michael Buble's four chart albums spent more combined weeks in the top 100 during 2005 than any other act (99 weeks). It's Time hit the chart at #2 for a couple of weeks in March and returned for a couple more weeks in May – being beaten to the Mother's Day #1 by Il Divo (last year, Michael's self-titled album Michael Buble was the Mother's Day #1). Michael is very popular amongst female audiences for his dashing looks and smooth voice. That eponymous self-titled album of 2003 stayed in the top 100 for the whole year, one of seven to do so. It came in at #28 for 2005.

No.4 LOVE, ANGEL, MUSIC, BABY – Gwen Stefani. The debut solo album for the No Doubt frontwoman has been a massive success. It spent the whole year in the top 100 and stayed at #1 for a few weeks during February. The album has also been a goldmine of singles as well. Two of the five singles from the pop-rockers' album have hit #1 (What You Waiting For? in November 2004 and Hollaback Girl in May 2005), while two more have made it into the top 10 and the most recent single currently sitting in the top 30. Love, Angel, Music, Baby was #89 in last year's end of year list.

No.5 MONKEY BUSINESS – Black Eyed Peas. Last year, Black Eyed Peas' previous album Elephunk made it to #9 on the end of year chart. This year they have bettered their year by five spots with their most recent album. Monkey Business debuted on the albums chart at #1 for a week in June and returned for a couple more in August. It has spent 26 of its 29 chart weeks to date in the top 10 which is an incredible feat. Two of the three singles from the album to date have hit #1 (Don't Phunk With My Heart in May and My Humps in November), while the other, Don't Lie, peaked at #6. The album has gone quadruple platinum.

No.6 AMERICAN IDIOT – Green Day. Possibly their biggest album to date, Green Day have enjoyed much success with this release. It has been wall to wall with singles, which have kept the rocking youth of Australia happy. Two singles peaked in the top 10 and the others made the top 30. American Idiot was released in late 2004 and peaked at #1 for a couple weeks in September and October that year. This year the punk-rockers have seen the album perform extremely well. It spent the whole of 2005 in the national top 50, reaching a top position of #4 during its 20 weeks in the top 10 this year. In the 2004 end of year list, the album came in at #25.

No.7 IN BETWEEN DREAMS – Jack Johnson. In the space of the past couple of years, Jack Johnson has converted a cult following into mass appeal which has resulted in this album spending the whole of March in the #1 position (which totals to four weeks). Jack was a surfer turned surf film director, photographer, producer and score composer after being seriously injured in a surfing accident. He then focused his attention to music and has developed a firm fan base since. In Between Dreams is now triple platinum and spawned the top 30 single Sitting, Waiting, Wishing.

No.8 X & Y – Coldplay. Since 2001, the three studio albums for Coldplay have all racked up multi-platinum sales and have all sailed to - or near - the top of the charts. In 2001 Parachutes peaked at #2 and in 2002 A Rush Of Blood To The Head peaked at #1. X & Y followed in the footsteps of the latter, peaking at #1 on debut in June this year. The album has spent the entire 28 weeks since release in the top 50 and has produced two chart singles to date – Speed Of Sound which reached #9 and Fix You which peaked at #25.

No.9 BACK TO BEDLAM – James Blunt. James Blunt was virtually an unknown artist back in April when this album was released. Come June, the album had reached the top 100. By August, Back To Bedlam exploded and shot to #1 where it held the top spot for four straight weeks. James Blunt was then a household name! The mellow balladeer has produced three chart singles from the album, two of which have hit the top 10. You're Beautiful peaked at #2 and Goodbye My Lover reached #8.

No.10 IN YOUR HONOR – Foo Fighters. This kicker of an album held the #1 position for five weeks during June and July. Not breaking tradition, this album like the other four the rockers have released, made the top 5 on the albums chart. This is their second #1 album, with One By One claiming pole position in 2002 also. One By One made it to #37 in the end of year chart for 2003. Foo Fighters released two singles from the album so far, with Best Of You peaking at #5 and D.O.A. reaching #39. They recently finished a tour of Australia which has gone down as one of the best live shows of the year.
